Space & Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

CHARLESTON -- Raytheon Electronic Systems, Sudbury, Mass., is being awarded a modification to Contract N65236-96-D-6800 for an estimated $5,162,003, a cost-plus-fixed-fee, indefinite delivery type contract. The contract provides for engineering, technical, management, training, and maintenance support services for Relocatable-Over-The-Horizon Radar (ROTHR) systems. This contract was not competitively procured and was awarded August 15, 1996, in the amount of $4,361,539 (estimated) for the base period with three, one-year option periods. If all options are exercised, the total estimated value of the contract will be $19,720,703. This modification is to exercise the Second Option Year and will commence April 1, 1998 through March 31, 1999. As a result of this action, the total estimated amount of the contract is changed from $9,093,551.00 to $14,255,554.00. Work will be performed at Chesapeake, Virginia (70 percent) and Sudbury, Mass. (30 percent). The contracting activity is Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston.
